THRICE CITED FOR BRAVERY

Lt. Frederick Duhring Commended For Gallant Action By French Is Back to His Loved Ones.

After serving with a reserve company ambulance unit unattached for many months with the French all along the war front from the North Sea to the Alps and winning for himself and section three remarkably fine citations for bravery and a decoration of the Croix de guerre, Lt. Frederick Durhing is home again with his loved ones.

He arrived in Sonoma the latter part of last week and enjoyed the reunion with the family at the old home here as he had contemplated in his dreams when overseas.

Lt. Durhing was with the French forces altogether and saw little of our own boys and Uncle Sam's forces. There were 24 ambulances in his section and they were ordered to the scenes of the heaviest causalties and most terrific fighting zones. It was during one of these bloody conflicts when in the face of a terrible barrage ,Durhing dodged death to bring men off the battlefield to the ambulances, that he won at least one of the citations from the French commanding officer. For five or six days at a time he served without being relieved and at times drove as far as 200 miles with his section to give aid in different parts of the theatre of war.

Before coming home he went into Germany and also paid a visit to Monsieur's Husson's brother in France who billited soldiers in his home during the war as will be recalled by a letter published in these columns some months ago.

CAR OVERTURNS DRIVER IS KILLED

Party On Way To Springs in Sonoma Valley Has Tragic Accident Near Sears Point.

A car driven by Samuel Pick, manager of the United Sales Force Company of San Francisco, overturned on the State Highway near Sears Point Sunday and killed the driver instantly. He was accompanied by his wife, two children and a friend, Oscar Wering, all of whom were more or less injured.

It appears that the Dodge car struck some heavy gravel as Pick applied the brakes to avoid a culvert and as it swung around careened and overturned. Pick's chest was crushed and he was beyond medical aid when Dr. Hays, Coroner Phillips and Undertaker Bates reached the scene of the fatality. Dr. Phillips was on his way here from Petaluma to hold another inquest when summoned on this case. A verdict of accidental death was returned at the official inquiry.

The operetta is brimful of tuneful melodies and the comedy is delightful.

LIEUTENANT TO CLAIM BRIDE

Miss Valeria Helberg Will Wed Lt. Volquardsen Tonight at Pretty Home Wedding In Schellville.

In the presence of about 75 relatives and friends at the Schellville home of the bride's parents, Lieutenant Volquardsen, U. S. N., will claim as his bride Miss Valeria Helberg, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Helberg. Lt. Volquardsen is here on a leave of absence, and the wedding which will unite the happy couple who have been sweethearts since schooldays, was decided upon some weeks ago.

Many showers and complimentary afternoons have been meanwhile given in honor of the fair bride-to-be.

The ceremony tonight at the Helberg home will be solemnized by the Episcopal minister from Napa and the bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Marie Helberg, while Ernest Straub of San Francisco will act as best man.

The bride, who is of the blonde type, with complexion of rich coloring and a wealth of wavy gold hair will be indeed a lovely bride in her wedding gown of white georgette and satin with silver trimming and filmy veil. Her sister will wear a beautiful costume combinjng the pink and blue tints and carry flowers in the pastel shades.

The house will be decked in a mass of floral beauty, pink and white predominating in the color scheme.

An elaborate wedding supper will follow the ceremony after which Lt. Volquardsen and his bride will depart on a motor tour and expect to spend their honeymoon in travel through the state.

The romance of the popular young couple is of interest to a large circle of friends as both have many admirers, not only in Sonoma Valley but in distant lands as well, for Lt. Volquardsen is widley traveled and highly thought of in Navy circles. He has advanced himself rapidly from the ranks and is still studying for the higher promotions for which he is in line. His bride has devoted herself to the noble proffession of trained nurse and graduated with honors from the Hahnemann Hospital, San Francisco.

Many costly wedding presents have been received by the young couple and the groom's gift to his bride will be a string of pearls of unusual beauty and value.

GRASS FIRE MENACES MISSION

Noted Landmark Was Endangered Sunday and Constable Murray Arrests Man For Carelessness.

A grass fire which Constable Murray alleges was started by Frank Ronicke, who resides in the rear of the Mission, and endangered that historic structure when it spread to the tall grass, created considerable excitement on Sunday. The fire bell evidently had gone on a new kind of a strike and failed to ring when the rope was pulled and as a result a still alarm was turned in. Fire fighters were promptly on the scene and soon extinguished what might have been a serious blaze.

As an aftermath of the conflagation, Jack Murray caused the arrest of Frank Ronicke under a state law which makes it a misdemeanor to let a grass fire get away after setting it or to be guilty of neglect in regard to same. Mr. Ronicke it is alleged had been burning brush and rubbish but he claims he exercised all due care to safeguard surrounding premises.

Community Saddened By Death of Prominent Woman; Rebekahs to Conduct Funeral Today.

Mrs. John Wagnon, Postmaster Wagnon's splendid helpmate and life partner, passed away Thursday at the home of her son in Vallejo following a stroke of paralysis some weeks ago. She seemed to rally after going to Vallejo but on Friday took a turn for the worst and the end came peacefully Thursday.

Means Much to Sonoma

DO NOT overlook the importance of the state highway bond election to Sonoma Valley. On the success of the state election depends the building of a permanent high type road to Santa Rosa. Some who were skeptital thought it best that the route was included in the state road program, rather than in Sonoma County's proposed system, for they believed that the latter might not get the landslide majority the boosters predicted. Now that we know Sonoma County's attitude which has always been figured as conservative, it is a safe bet that the state will return a magnificent majority to complete and extend the arteries and laterals and that the route in which the Valley of the Moon is most interested, will be put through.

Last Sunday night by direct count 260 machines were waiting transportation on the Richmond-SanRafael ferry, with probably as many more at Sausalito. This shows the trend of travel this way and with the building of the connecting link between the present state highway and the county highway to the coast we can count on an inflex of travel once undreamed of

If Sonoma city does not want to be given a wide berth, she will do well to put on her thinking cap and devise ways and means whereby we can line up with the good roads and keep travel coming this way. The day of penny wise and pound foolish is near unless we change our tack and go with the wind into the port of prosperity we will find ourselves in a dead calm town feeling our bumps yet failing to get a line on the logic of good roads and prosperity. The cents we save on taxes or interest on bonds will cause no joy fest when we witness all the business which will whizz by to our more far seeing and business like neighbors. And should we take no steps to get the modern type roads, we will continue to flounder in the same old morass of expenditure for oil, gravel, crushed rock and sand dumped here and there to placate someone only to leave a monumental hole in its wake after but little travel while the money thus spent takes wing in flying clouds of hated dust.

While road work is going on in our midst Sonoma should take advantage of it. And we are given assurance that the county work will start within 90 days. That gives us just 90 days to think it over and act.

The New Farmer

IT IS good to contemplate the constructive era in farming and to realize that trained farmers are not only piling up more wealth than formerly by eliminating stupid waste but are also conserving their strength, both mental and physical and leading broader and more satisfactory lives than heretofore than any other class of citizens.

The drudge going it blind is as antiquated a specimen as the hayseed farmer, that rural character whose world is now confined to the vaudeville show or the movies.

Economics has pointed out and demonstrated to our universities that successful agriculturists mean everything to the world. Since knowledge of the "principles and practice essential to successful agriculture" have all been correlated, short courses and more comprehensive ones are now being offered and from September of this year at Davis our own University of California announces most interesting avenues of investigation which may be pursued by the ambitious farmer, either young or old.

As though quite satisfied that fifty brood sows means as much to the practical farmer as fifty proffessors, they are mentioned as a highly developed feature of farm training at the university school.

Besides animal Husbandry or stock raising, courses are offered in general agriculture, Poultry Husbandry, Dairy Manufacturing, Buttermaking, Cheesemaking, Beekeeping, Decidious Fruits, Gas Tractors, etc.

Unfit Get Cream Of State Aid

WHEN we read of the generous appropriation to house and take care of dependents and defectives, it makes the thinking citizen rebel at some of the discomforts and obsolete equipment which our normal children, the pride of the community, must endure. It seems to us that the latter are state charges in the biggest sense yet they are dependent upon local financial conditions and sentiment for redress which is quite likely unfavorable to the taking on of new responsibilities. Verily, monuments and sinecures of state politicians with their insistent patronage are of indirect benefit to hapless dependents but it is a pity that the thrifty charity cannot be turned into those educative channels wherein citizenship takes its rise and gathers its strength for the nation. Witness our State Homes opulence and our local High School clamoring for relief. Here is an incongruity which is entitled to solution and kindred conditions and comparisons would not be difficult to delineate. When politicians goose step for the pie and the pie plums from the pie go to the unfit while others are shut out of their just right to development, here is a wide field for sociological adjusters to exercise their talents and to tinker thoughtfully.

FEDERAL employment bureaus report only twelve out of eighty-three cities as having labor shortage. What does such information amount to. The restless floating elements and the discontented transients naturally flow to the big cities, with all the talk of high wages and short hours. What do such reports help the farmer who must have an abundant supply of farm labor available at all times and cannot depend upon the pool room bums and street corner loafers to work if the government bureaus would deliver them to him free of expense. Besides his children nor his chickens nor anything of value laying around loose would be safe for a minute. Nothing so illuminating as a federal employment bureau report to help solve the problem of agricultural labor.—Manufacturer.

A NUMBER of cities are undertaking regulations to insure the purity of dairy products. Recently adjourned legislatures have enacted more and more laws on top of hundreds already in existence to regulate dairy industry which is already regulated to a standstill. To prove our political cowardice and atrophied mental condition, no one refers to the need of more dairy products, or the scarcity and high prices due to superabundance of legislation and scarcity of labor that will milk cows, dung stables or wean calves at any price. We approach the cowless age.

CEREGHINO'S BROTHER RETURNS FROM WAR

Tony Cereghino's brother, "Sandy" of Petaluma is back from the war where he fought with the 28th division and was in the infantry for 10 months. He has been suffering from rheumatism and has not been discharged from the Letterman hospital, although he was up on a furlough over the last week end. His friends planned to give him a grand welcome and were preparing to hitch up the hack which Sandy drove in Petaluma for years prior to the war, they were to decorate it gaily in welcome signs and the national colors, and with two mules in the traces, were to give the returning hero a rousing send off. It was all planned, but somehow the schedule of his arrival was changed and so the boys had to content themselves with hearty handsakes.. However Mrs. Hannon and other relatives gave a big dinner in his honor.

TAXPAYERS APPRECIATE INDEX-TRIBUNE'S COOPERATION

Editor Sonoma Index Tribune,
Sonoma, California.,
Dear Sir:

On behalf of the Taxpayers' Association I take great pleasure in acknowledging the splendid support given to us in our recent campaign to secure good roads for Sonoma County.

We recognized at the outstart that without the support and cooperation of the press that we could make no progress in moulding public thought. But with this help we won a splendid victory and I acknowledge with hearty thanks the splendid support that your paper has given us.

Yours very truly,
J. L. PETERS,
Secretary Taxpayers' Association of Sonoma County.

BIRTHDAY PARTY AT EL VERANO

Monday night, friends gathered at the home of Sam Strong and gave him a surprise party, the occasion being his birthday. Several ladies came dressed in different characters which they took off exceedingly well and afforded much pleasure to all present.

At midnight, a fine supper was served. There was some fine speech-making and toasts. The party departed in the wee small hours, all voting an excellent time.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cliff, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Norrbom, Mr. and Mrs. F. Joost, Mrs. Jas Baines, Mr. and Mrs. Strong, Misses Agnes and Ethel Revie, Earl Revie, Geo. Stickel, and Willie Baines.

LT. DUHRING MAY SPEAK AT RED CROSS MEETING

On next Tuesday evening, June 10, at 8 o'clock, the regular meeting of the Red Cross will be held at the Grammar school. Everybody will be interested in the reports of the recent conference held in San Francisco, which was attended by a full delegation from our local branch, Mrs. L. Green, Mrs. C. Johnson, Mrs. A. M. Thomson, Miss F. Green and others.

It is probable that Lt. Fred S. Duhring, who has just returned from France, will give some personal accounts of Red Cross activities "over there."

Henry Weber, Jr., spent the last week end in San Francisco where he purchased some of the latest song successes and had a very enjoyable time.

INCOME TAX PAYER ATTENTION

Mr. Income Taxpayer who has an installment account with Uncle Sam should bear in mind that his second payment must be in the hands of Collector of Internal Revenue Justus S. Wardell, San Francisco, not later than Monday, June 16.

Failure to make the payment on or before the above date subjects the taxpayer to a penalty of 25 per cent of the tax, and interest at 1 per cent per month until the tax is paid.

Under the new revenue law. it is pointed out by the collector, the ten day grace period which obtained in the former law, does not apply.

Statements of their income and profits tax accounts have been mailed to more than 50,000 organizations and individuals in the District. Accompanying these statements are full printed instructions as to the manner of remitting the tax.

Where it is possible, the Collector urges taxpayers to pay the remaining installments on or before the next due date.

Mesdames J. Stonier and McAllister spent Tuesday shopping in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hotz and son Preston were in San Francisco Tuesday and Preston had his picture taken at Hartsock's.

Mrs. M. Gough has been visiting in San Francisco.

Mrs. Kinsella has been here on a visit and arragging to dispose of her lot on Second street East. It is rumored that Mrs. Kinsella will marry a prominent resident of Healdsburg shortly.

Mrs. Ed. Wegner and daughter, Frieda (Mrs. R. C. Hillen) of Oakland, were here last week calling on old friends.

Leonard Thomas, whose division, the 4th Engineers, replaced the Rainbow division overseas, is now hopeful of getting home some time in June He has found it exceedingly dull since being in Germany although he says the Rhine is a beautiful section of country and he has traveled about considerably.

Another phase of the nullifying of war time prohibition is that the revenue which would be collected will solve many financial problems National, State and municipal. Saloon license money alone will permit many improvements almost impossible should war time prohibition go into effect and be enforced. All saloons had to pay their license for the new quarter on June 1 as they wished to remain in business even though they be allowed to run but one month in the event that the July 1st liquor edict becomes operative.

Dr. and Mrs. Parramore are visiting relatives at Willows.

Ex Mayor E. Schmitz, of San Francisco, now a supervisor of that city, has been enjoying an outing at the Springs here. He returned to the city Tuesday.

RODEHAVER RANCH SOLD FOR $50,000

One of the most important deals reported in many months, was closed Monday when E. O. Voyer, the real estate dealer, sold the George W. Rodehaver ranch, formerly nown as the Lynch ranch and located on the Stage Gulch road near this city, to David Douglass of Marshall, Marin county. The transaction was for cash and it is understood that the price paid was approximately the sum of $50,000.

Mr. Douglass will lease the big ranch to his nephews, Messrs G. and M. Douglass of Marshall, who will take possession as soon as the present lessees leave.

Mr. Douglass has been leasing the Mazza ranch at Marshall for years, but decided to buy a place.

The ranch has been owned by Mr. Rodehaver for many years. There are 64 acres with large buildings and a fine residence. It was bought many years ago by Mr. Rodehaver from the heirs of the late Michael Lynch and has since been rented by the owner. For the past several years the Betinelli Bros. have been leasing the place and conducting a dairy.

The Messrs. Douglass are planning to sell their stock on the Mazza ranch and buy the stock and personal property from the Messrs. Betinelli.—Petaluma Courier.

JUST THOUGHTS

Dear Editor:—

Why all this uproar, why quarrel and why all this accusations?

Are those that enjoy a drink of Aqua Pura any better than those who enjoy one, two or three glasses of wine or beer? "In vino veritas"

What right, if any, has one to correct another before self-corrective?

Have we not time and again read and heard of things happening at other places than a resort, roadhouse, or such places.

Strange things have happened in places supposed to be sacred; if under the influence of wine or water, we do not know, nor do we want to know, but it is a fact; and has been proven. I do not want to criticise, far be it, neither do I attempt to preach sermons for the simple reason I am not qualified and have faults of my own, which I am honestly trying to correct. Therefore I say, "Gosh Darn Prohibition, lets be real men and women and we will all be happy.

Respectfully,
C. A. WEISSHAAR

"CUPID" W. W. FELT IS ACCOMMODATING OFFICIAL

Superinduced by the belief that there are more couples wanting to secure marriage licenses, and aided by the possibility that there may be some eleventh hour voters who desire to get on the poll lists for the state highway bond election on July 1, County Clerk Felt will keep his office open Saturday until 5 p. m. There has been so many notifications that registration closes Saturday that it is assured that all good citizens have attended to getting transferred so as to vote for the extension of the state highwa. Everything closes at 5 p. m. Saturday.—Republican.

President F. M. Burris of the Sonoma Valley Bank, has purchased a new model 8-cylinder Cadillac.

Mr. and Mrs. Michelssohn and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lutgens have been enjoying an outing in Lake county.

NURSE SUES HEUGITT ESTATE FOR $140.00

The suit of Mrs. Annie Phillips, a nurse, against Public Administrator Phillips, as administrator of the estate of the late John Heugitt, wherein she sought to recover $140, fees for nursing the deceased and his wife, and $21 for transportation on seven trips from San Francisco when she was summoned here, was continued by Judge Vaughan Monday in order that the plaintiff might produce evidence to prove her claim. The administrator had disallowed it and in the trial, a week ago, the plaintiff failed to make the necessary showing but claimed that she had the evidence and was given until Monday to produce it.

Attorney Mooney who represented the administrator, fought the continuance on the ground that she had had two opportunities to produce her evidence and had failed to do so. The judge stated that he thought so, too, but did not like to deprive her of a chance to show the evidence and have her appeal and be reversed on evidence that was not produced in his court. The matter was allowed to go over until Thursday, next week, with the understanding that if the evidence was not produced, judgment would be given against her at that time.

Miss. Wertz, of lower Broadway has accepted a position with the Sonoma Valley Bank and will succeed Mrs. Irene Seawell who is to resign.

Mr. and Mrs. Brubeck are now residing in town on Patton St.

KNOWS HOW TO PLAY AS WELL AS WORK

The Standard Oil Bulletin for May gives an interesting and appreciative sketch of the life and activities of W. S. Miller, now chairman of the Board of Directors of the Standard Oil Company. Mr. Miller will be remembered by residents of Sonoma Valley for he formerly made his home here and owned the fine ranch property later sold to Mr. Rochat and recently purchased by Chas. Van Damme of the Richmond-San Rafael erry Company. Mr. and Mrs. Miller made many friends during their residence among us and they will read with interest the following article:

"Chairman of our Board of Directors, Mr. Miller is also probably the dean of oilmen in California. He was born in 1845, and the last forty-five years of his life have been devoted to the oil business. Away from business golf is his hobby. He plays a strong game. One of his intimate friends, who knows him well, both in work and in play, likens his golf-playing to his business activities—"not spectacular, but always steady, well thought out and sure—that is, as sure as golf can be played." The golf clubs and green mean a lot to Mr. Miller; they are responsible for the fact that he is a younger man today than he was ten years ago when he started to play the game.

Turn back the pages of Pennsylvania petroleum history, and you will find that Mr. Miller was in the oil business in 1875. This business he sold in 1881 to the Star Oil Company, a subsidiary of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey. It has been said that Mr. Miller was fifty per cent of the bargain, as his invaluable services were part and parcel of the purchase. He took charge of the Central New York field in 1884, with headquarters at Syracuse. In 1890 he came to California to serve as treasurer of the California company—at the time the Standard Oil Company of Iowa, also a subsidiary of the New Jersey company. In the reorganization of the Standard Oil Company (California) in 1914 he was elected a vice-president.

Under the heading "A Half-Century on Christmas Day," the Bulletin published, in January 1916, the following item: "Friends of Vice-President W. S. Miller congratulated him and his good wife on the twenty-fifth of December. But it was not only because it was Christmas. On the 26th of December, 1915, Mr. and Mrs. Miller had been married fifty years." That long partnership still maintains Like his golf, it also is illustrative of the man—"steady and sure."

Now chairman of the board, Mr. Miller's deep understanding, his splendid spirit of fairness, and his sound judgment will continue to be of immeasurable value in the further upbuilding of the company."

Roy Aubrey, of the Post Patrol Naval Reserve during the war, is now out of the service and recently visited his mother, Mrs. Tom Monahan. A turkey dinner was given in his honor at which the Monahan sisters from San Francisco, were also present. Aubrey now holds a responsible position with the Union Construction company of Oakland.

Rev. Charles C. Champlin has become interested in scientific dairying and is at the Wildwood Dairy at Kenwood getting experience in practicalmanagement. It is said that he will give up the ministry to engage in dairying.

Bruce Weatherbed who was in the Ammunition department of the army during the war, has been mustered out and has been up at El Verano.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mazzie of San Francisco, were up over Decoration Day and enjoyed a picnic with the Fromont family.

FOUND DEAD IN HIS BED

Michael Lonergan, Former San Francisco Liveryman Dies Suddenly at Home Here.

Michael Lonergan, a former San Francisco livery stable keeper and lover of fine horses, who resided alone between here and El Verano, failed to appear about his premises as usual last Saturday and when W. D. Foley, a neighbor, investigated he found the old gentleman dead in bed. Heart trouble had evidently overcome him and he died without a struggle. He was 76 years of age and very active up to the day of his death, handling the reins of his spirited horses like a young man.

After an inquest Sunday by Coroner Frank Phillips, the remains were shipped to Rocklin, Calif., for interment beside a deceased brother.

Two brothers surviving deceased live in Redwood City, this state, and in Oregon. A niece, Mrs. Elder of Sacramento took charge of the funeral arrangements.

NURSE GRACE THOMPSON BACK FROM OVERSEAS IS AT ARMY HOSPITAL

Miss Grace Thompson of Glen Ellen who went overseas as a nurse in the army and performed heroic work in the care of sick and wounded in France, arried in New York May 5th and after nine days there was transferrred to Acadia, California, where she is now stationed at the U. S. Army Post Hospital (Balloon School) with three other nurses.

Miss Thompson recently wrote to her old friend, Mrs. Jane Green, and sent her some wonderful French lace. In her letter she describes Arcadia as a beautiful place, the site of the old Baldwin race track. It is near Pasadena and just 40 minutes from Los Angeles. She expects to be there until next month.

Coming out from New York, Miss Thompson visited Washington, D. C. and also New Orleans, where she was entertained by the Red Cross. She found the Red Cross work there in the hands of Society leaders, mostly French people.

At Arcadia Miss Thompson is being made a lot of as overseas nurses are much beloved there and Grace Thompson is a typical "Rose of No-man's Land." She will be heartily welcomed upon her return here.

HERO OF WAR GUEST AT BISH RANCH

Arthur Young, of the Canadian Mounted Rifles, the noted cavalry unit first organized by Lord Strathcora during the Boer war, and who was later transferred to the 102nd Canadian Infantry Batallion and then to the 31st Albertas, is here on a visit to the Bish family at Madrone. Young is a college graduate and a state of Maine man. He saw service on the Viny and Lens fronts and his batallion had the distinction of making 98 raids in 45 days on the Neuville-Vetasse front in the spring and summer of 1918. This was the greatest number of raids on the eastern front in the theatre of war. He participated in the battle of Arras, Amiens, Lens, Canal-de-Nord, Cambrai, Mons and Boulougue Woods.

His company went "over the top" at 8 o'clock on the morning of November 11th ,and advanced until 11 a. m., the hour of the armistice.

He then went to the Rhine into Germany, the Canadians and Allies together crossing the border at Beho, Belguim and the Rhine at Boun on December 13th.

He was staff Sergeant with the Canadian Mounted Rifles and Corporal and Sergeant later with the 102nd.

JOE KISER'S CAR AGAIN DAMAGED

Joe Kiser's Dodge car which figured in an accident some weeks ago, when a number of high school students were returning from a ball game in it and overturned near El Verano, was again damaged last Sunday night when a Scripps-Booth driven by a manufacturer of San Francisco, by the name of Rossi, collided with the Dodge on the stone bridge at Embarcardero and smashed the fenders. It is alleged that the city driver and his family were on the wrong side of the road and Mr. Kiser figured he would make the right turn when he came onto the bridge. Instead Rossi failed to change his course and the acident was the result. No one was injured but Kiser had the San Francisco man arrested by Deputy Sheriff Ryan for reckless driving. He will try and have the malfactor pay for the repairs to his Dodge.
